

The census results give evidence of the growing educational attainment of the country residents. At the time of enumeration, 90% of the population at the age of 15 years and older had higher, secondary specialized, vocational-technical, general secondary or general basic education.

Dynamics of educational attainment of population during 1959-2009

(persons with higher, secondary or basic education per 1000 people aged 15 and over)

Population by educational attainment in 1999 and 2009

(persons with corresponding educational attainment per 1000 people aged 15 and over)

